Judge H. Clay McKee and wife are at Martinsville, Ind., for his health.

W. P. Dale and family have returned to Lexington, and his address is 215 East Maxwell street.

Misses Mac Moffett and Anna Jefferson Sharp, of Sharpsburg, were guests in our city on last Friday.

Mrs. James Robertson and Miss Ella Souly, of Homer, Ind., are guests of their cousin, Mrs. Bruce Trimble.

Rev. J. R. Hobbs and wife and Mrs. R. Q. Drake and daughter, Miss Ann Laura, were in Louisville Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Louise Wood, of Washington, D. C., who has been in Kentucky since July 25th, returns home tomorrow night, accompanied by Miss Mary Wood, of this city.

Ben R. Turner was here for registration.

R. A. Mason, of Lee, is visiting in the county.

J. M. Elliott, of Missouri, came on Saturday to spend a few days.

Miss Irene Hedges returned last week from a twelve weeks' visit to her sister in Dayton, Ohio.

S. N. Hall, wife and children, who have been visiting her mother, Mrs. M. W. Anderson, returned to their home in Kansas City, Mo., today.

Miss Susie Fox, of Lexington, spent Sunday with Mrs. Chas. Donohue. For a year she has been living with her sister, Mrs. Rogers.

There are 37 Life Ins. Cos. doing business in Kentucky. They paid in dividends in 1904 $31,046,975. Of this the Northwestern Mutual Life paid $5,340,482, or one-sixth of the dividends paid by the 37 companies—making it the largest dividend paying company in the world. Ask ARNOLD about it.

RELIGIOUS.

Rev. W. R. Shipp, of Alabama, is assisting Pastor L. C. Kelly in a meeting with Sharpsburg Baptist Church.

Beginning next Sunday and continuing for a week, special services will be held at the Christian Church by Rev. H. D. Clark. All are invited.

Presbytery of Ebenezer will meet in Covington on next Monday, and the synod of Kentucky in the same church on Tuesday. Rev. Geo. A. Joplin will represent the First Presbyterian Church of Mt. Sterling, with either Dr. Howard VanAntwerp or Mr. Will Apperson as elder delegates.

Next Sunday will be "Rally Day" at the First Presbyterian Church and Sunday School. A very attractive program has been prepared. There will be recitations and singing by the Sunday School. Miss Anna Bell Donohue will also sing and there will be a short address by the pastor. The services will begin at 10:30. A very cordial invitation is extended to everybody.

The Christian Church was occupied last Sunday, having been closed for repairs. A new carpet, attractive frescoing, more chandeliers, varnishing, etc., have added much to the appearance of the building. The floral decorations were beautiful. Brother Clark's words of gratitude, hopefulness and encouragement for greater usefulness in Christian work were as beautiful as his surroundings.

Ministers and leading church men in Central Kentucky will hold a conference in Lexington, beginning this afternoon and closing on Friday night, preparatory to revivals. Three sessions will be held daily, most of the talks are limited to 20 minutes. The program calls for 30 speeches, besides discussions. Rev. Joplin, of this city, speaks on "Personal Prayer" on Thursday at 3:10. Meeting at Y. M. C. A. building.

Rev. Levens Eddy, who had been a teacher in the Kentucky School for the Deaf and Dumb in Danville, Ky., for thirty-two years, dropped dead in the classroom last week. Mr. Eddy was a Presbyterian minister and was for many years stated clerk of Transylvania Presbytery and the Synod of Kentucky.

Dr. Arthur Weir Johnstone, one of the most noted surgeons of the country, died last Thursday afternoon at his residence on Madison road, Cincinnati, after a second operation for appendicitis. Dr. Johnstone was born near Danville, Ky., in 1853, and was educated at Centre College, Danville. Taking up the medical profession, he spent seven years in study in the United States, and was a pupil of Dr. Lawson Tate late of Birmingham, England, who stood at the head of his profession in England as a specialist in abdominal surgery. He formed a partnership with Dr. A. R. McKee, of Danville, but soon moved to Cincinnati, where he at once took high rank as a surgeon, and as a student he made much original research, which has attracted the attention of scientists throughout the world.

Preaching at the Southern Presbyterian Church next Sabbath morning.

Rev. J. B. Meachman will preach at the Presbyterian Church in Owingsville, Ky., next Sabbath evening at 7:00 o'clock.

The superintendent of the First Presbyterian Sunday School has sent out a notice gotten up in the form of a telegram to the scholars of his school calling their attention to the fact that next Sunday, October 8, will be Rally Day. It is a fetching design and should have the result desired.

A protracted meeting will begin at Springfield Church next Sabbath afternoon at three o'clock. The services during the week will begin at seven o'clock each evening. Rev. R. P. Bayless, of Shelbyville, Ky., will do the preaching. Mr. Bayless is a young man, bright and energetic, well adapted in every way to the great work to which he has been called. We are fortunate in securing the services of such a man.

Now don't you know that Knox Stiff Silk and Opera Hats are recognized as best? Well, buy the Knox.

Do not miss it. Beautiful millinery at Roberts & Mastin on Oct. 4th and 5th. 11-2t.

DEATHS.

McCLURE.—On Sunday afternoon, October 1st, 1905, Mr. Andy McClure (son of Jack McClure, deceased) died at his home on Kiddville pike. He was a bachelor and lived with his sister.

The funeral of W. J. Wallis and wife will be preached at the grove near Consolidation on Sunday, the 15th of October, by Revs. Center Gevedon, Lykins and Linkous, and dinner on the ground.—Hazel Green Herald.

HEDDEN.—Mrs. Susan Francis Hedden departed this life at her home in Shelby county Tuesday afternoon, September 26, 1905, at 1 o'clock, from an acute attack of pneumonia. Funeral services were held at the late residence, conducted by Rev. B. F. Hungerford, a friend and neighbor for more than forty years, and the burial was in the Salem Church Cemetery. Had she lived until Saturday, the 30th of September, she would have been eighty-four years old. Was married in 1846 to Jacob Hedden and lived near Mt. Eden, Shelby county, until 1864, when she, with her husband and family, moved to Hemp Ridge, where she lived until death. She made a public confession of her faith in Christ in 1854 and became a member of the Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, and in 1865, having moved away from that part of the county, took membership in the Salem Baptist Church, where she was a consistent member until the time of her death. She was the mother of nine children, eight of whom survive her and were at her funeral—Misses Mary Kate, Helen A., Susan F. and Bettie, of Shelby county; James E. and R. J. Hedden, of the same county; Mrs. E. G. Burnett, of Louisville, and J. W. Hedden, editor of the ADVOCATE, Mt. Sterling, Ky. Amanda died in infancy at the age of two and one-half years. Of her the minister said: "She was a true, Christian woman, faithful in all the relations of life. As well add streamers to make the sun a greater illuminary as to contribute a eulogy to add to her christian graces and womanly virtues. She has left to family and friends the example of a noble life; may they remember and practice her christian graces and prepare to meet her. When these long parted meet again and those who meet will part no more." It is mother who is watchful and considerate from the cradle to the grave. The babe's first signs of intelligence is quickly caught by the loving mother who asks God's direction and care. It is mother who advised her girls from womanhood, through motherhood and out into the world with their own. Mother who loves her boys and never permits a day to pass without committing them into the hands of the loving Father. It was she who was last at the Cross and first at the Savior's grave. The open Bible with marked pages, the old-time religion, repentance toward God, faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and a consistent living is mother's life. She remembers her children individually and not a day passes that her heart does not go up to God in their behalf. Such is the life of the true, loving, christian mother, and such was the life of my mother. We will miss her; that low rocking chair long and gracefully occupied by mother is vacant now, and when we look that way we will long to see her the more, to hear her words of commendation and love; it is home without mother. The time will hasten now and ere long we shall, by the grace of God, meet her beyond the skies with all the redeemed. We want to emulate mother's pure life and be the man of her own conception. She was earth's noblest personage, a woman perfected through Christ and fitted for the realms of God. May we all so live that while entering into that long sleep we may smile, while all around may weep. The leaves of memory have a mournful rustling now.

"The air is full of farewells to the dying, And mournings for our dead."
"There is no flock, however watched and tended, But one dead lamb is there;
There is no hireling, however defended, But has one vacant chair."
As we meet to say good bye, take the last look and bury our dead, so if in the faith we shall meet in the beyond. "Tis Heaven alone that is given away." Grace is free. Yes, we will meet you mother, meet you and join with you and all the redeemed in praises to Him our Lord, King, and Savior.

TIPTON.—Judge James D. Tipton, who died Monday evening, October 2, 1905, at 5:30 o'clock, of liver trouble, was 61 years old. He was the son of Emma and Bettie Tipton, and was the youngest of four children. Leaves two brothers, Dr. Walter Tipton, of Lykins, Magoffin county, and Leitcher, of this county. Married Miss Sallie Black, of Greencastle, who survives him. They had one child, a daughter, Miss Lizzie, who died in 1892. He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, of Alma Lodge of Masons, had served two terms as City Assessor, and at the time of his death was Judge of the Mt. Sterling City Court. A dutiful son, kind and affectionate brother, father and husband, a true friend, a bold, true Mason, and conscientious Judge was he. His life has ever been an open book and his friendship was undying. Because of the serious sickness of his wife a short home service was held, and the public service was held at the First Presbyterian Church, conducted by Pastor Rev. Geo. A. Joplin, assisted by the pastors of the city churches.

TIPTON.—James Price, fifteen-months-old son of Alban Tipton, passed from earth to heaven on last Thursday morning. He was a bright and beautiful child. The Lord had use for him and took him, and the future alone may reveal the reason. Possibly he will serve as an anchor to hold and draw parents and kinsmen nearer to God. We sympathize with the bereaved and ask them to turn their tear-dimmed eyes upward, for where God is, there is the loved one.

THE TRUE HOT BLAST PRINCIPLE

This picture shows the HOT BLAST ring in the great BUCK'S HOT BLAST heater that you are hearing so much about these days.

It shows how the cold air is drawn from the floor into the stove. This means that there is constant circulation in your room—a most important feature from a health-giving standpoint.

There is no "dead air" in your home.

We will demonstrate the workings of this wonderful heater in front of our store on

OCTOBER 20 and 21.

After the demonstration we will give the heater, valued at $35.00, away. Get a ticket at our store.
